

RURAL COMMUNITY HEALTH • GLOBAL HEALTH • GRADUATE CERTIFICATES

Earn a Graduate Certificate in Rural Community Health or Global Health

The Graduate Certificate in Rural Community Health is for professionals who are practicing or plan to practice in rural communities. This certificate provides in-depth knowledge to enhance the care of populations in the underserved rural health fields.

The Graduate Certificate in Global Health is for professionals who are practicing or plan to practice in a global health setting. This certificate provides the necessary knowledge and skills to engage in a variety of settings in medically underserved areas around the world.

- Complete in 12 credit hours online
- Opportunity for practical application of work in the area of interest in rural or global health
- Individualized plan of study for the practicum experience in rural health or global health
- Taught by expert, interprofessional health professionals from diverse backgrounds

Apply today at www.ttuhschool.edu/son/certificates/ruralhealth/application.aspx

Apply today at www.ttuhschool.edu/son/certificates/globalhealth/application.aspx